BKV Group awarded $15 million design project for the new Armed Forces Reserve Center in Faribault

Minneapolis, Minnesota — March 1, 2006 — BKV Group, a Minneapolis based architecture, interior design, landscape architecture, engineering and construction administration firm is pleased to announce that they were selected to design the new Armed Forces Reserve Center in Faribault consisting of 70,000 sf of new construction located on a 25 acre site located adjacent to the Faribault Airport.

The National Guard and Army Reserve training facility will consist of office areas, classrooms, a distance learning classroom, assembly hall, commercial kitchen, and military unit support spaces. The facility represents a shared use between the National Guard and the Army Reserve, and will include additional community center and recreational uses shared with the City of Faribault. BKV Group has assigned Ted Redmond, AIA as Manager Partner; Victor Pechaty, AIA as Project Designer and David Morck, AIA as Senior project Architect.

Founded in 1978, BKV Group is an award winning 85-person multi-disciplinary firm that provides services for a wide range of market segments including Community Development, Corporate, Education and Government. For more information visit www.bkvgroup.com.
